Pond Song

Dinosaur Jr.

Ponders, yet you're undecided
I sprinkle looks to let you know
Pain is a wave, come on, let's ride it
Jump on now or we'll have to row
Now, while your eyes run backThe memories attack
I'll give you my last crack
The dreams keep me awake
Feelings seem hard to shake
Same way I always fakeDripping off, you come to meet me
Break off a piece, to let you know
And they bubble all around you
Yeah, there's a love
But it won't show and while your eyes run backThe memories attack
I'll give you one last crack
The dreams keep me awake
Feelings seem hard to shake
Same way I always fakeNeed a way to keep it simple
All the times I bailed, you float
Girl, you reachin' for your anchor
I turned it down
Right down your throat
