Rain Down On Me

Blue Rodeo

We never need forgiveness
Left home at seventeen
Raised up on hate to life that's second rate
I've seen that look before
Behind some closing doorYou couldn't be delivered
Just won't be denied
Too much a child, confident and wild
Nobody taught you how to live
What to keep and what to giveOh, now she talks to strangers
Who bring her flowers for her hair
But every night you count on me
To get you out the door
Oh, then you smile and watch me lose controlYou rain on me
Oh, rain down on me
Oh, rain down on me, yeahI used to think, I knew
What I was waiting for
I don't think that anymoreI didn't know what to bring you
You don't seem to need too much at all
No pearls or chains and nobody's sad refrains
Every time I wonder why
I think back to the kindness in your eyesNow everybody wants you
Bring you flowers for your hair
But every night you count on me
To peel you off the wall
Oh, then you smile and watch me lose controlYou rain on me
Oh, rain down on me
Oh, rain down on me, heyI used to think I knew
What I was fighting for
I don't think that anymore
