The Porch

Dean Brody

Lately you've been in my dreams walkin' up and down these halls your cryin' eyes, they look at me they say why and then you're gone

Then we're standin' in a field, where I hold you in my arms It's the best day of our lives
I say I love you girl, then you're gone.

CHORUS:

All day long, I convince myself
that leaving you was right.
When the sun goes down and the lights go out my dreams tell me I lied.

So, baby here I stand heart in hand out here on your porch.
You don't have to hear me out
But I just wanted you to know

CHORUS:

All day long, I convince myself
that leaving you was right.
When the sun goes down and the lights go out
my dreams tell me I lied.

I lied!

Ooohhhh
Ooohhhh

(instrumental break)

Then i let you strike my face see your tears roll like rain

And i watch you close that door, and slowly open it again

And you kiss me like you never have Like I never made you cry
Let the sun go down, let the lights go out I won't dream of you tonight.

I need you baby
I love you baby

Forgive me, baby
