

Definitely Clean

The Dream Syndicate

I'm just standing here waiting
for you to come clean
I'm just standing here waiting
for you to come clean I'd ask you what you want but I don't think you'd know what I mean Something happens and they call you on the telephone something's missing and you know they want leave you alone
I'm not worried about you don't worry about me
I'm not worried about you
why should I be?
I got a phone call from your mother
she wants to know where you have been
I got a phone call from your mother
she wants to know where you have been I say ... ah ...I don't know where she is been
