They and Their Friends

Arthur Russell

They and their friends
I learned the tricks you use to know
You're not alone anymore
You're so reminded today what you want is I
Daily you do that same
I go around and say what they do and how they do it
I can't believe how much it seems like you
Carrying so much to such a little things
They and their friends
I learned the tricks you use to know
And now, and now they seeing a peace and reaction
You're single minded, and you know what you wanted now
Daily you liked, some far ways in the now saying awesome things
I can't believe how much it seems like you
Carrying so much to such a little things and all for nothing
They and their friends
You are the friends they saw in me
You're not the only one
You're single minded, and you know
What you want to know now
Daily you like some
