

Ruby Lane

Ken Navarro

Welcome down to Ruby Lane
Take your pick sir, were all the same
 The sky is my one direction
The earth is my bedWelcome down to Ruby Lane
 Save your soul man for lifes a game
 Receive me as a dancing monkey
And throw me a dimeAnd if you see my brother
 Youll know cause hes wearing no shoes
 Wont you be so good, man
As to throw him some food?You come back now and share your peace
 Well still be here till times release
 Im here with my one companion
The road beneath my feetAnd if you see my brother
 Youll know cause hes wearing no shoes
 Wont you be so good, man
As to throw him some food?Welcome down to Ruby Lane
 Take your pick sir, were all the same
 Im here with my one companion
 The road beneath my feet
 Im here with my one companion
 The road beneath my feet
