Tell Me Why

Diamond Rugs

My baby's got a reason to fly Guessin I can't win all the time Learnin how to lose with a smile Screwin me over
And send me to back of the lineYou could of told me then but you tell me now
Can you tell me why?Take all my stimulants wait and see what the world throws at me next Take all my depressants take it all and don't give me no severanceYou could of told me then
but you tell me now
Can you tell me why?Maybe you got a boyfriend now Maybe you fucked up like me and how
I got sweeter thing in my mouth
I swallow'em and the i shit them outYou could of told me then
but you tell me now
Can you tell me why?
You could of told me then
but you tell me now Why dont you tell me why? Tell me why
