U B U

Peter Cincotti

Standing by the bedroom door
Leaning on the wall
Watching how you brush your hair
Like a waterfallDusty galaxies
Dance around the sunNothing moves pretty good
Holding everything
I wonder what would happen
If we pulled the stringSo U B U and I'll be me
Just don't hide a thing
We'll be fine
Even if it's all wrong, it's alrightAnd don't remember
What you're supposed to do
U B U and in unforgiving light
Even if it's all wrong, it's alrightDrawing circles in the dirt
And throwing pennies in Thinking works a lot like that
You lose more than you winNo matter how you twist it up
It comes undone
Leave a well enough alone
And we'll all have funSo U B U and I'll be me
Just don't hide a thing
We'll be fine
Even if it's all wrong, it's alrightAnd don't remember
What you're supposed to do
U B U and in unforgiving light
Even if it's all wrong, it's alrightA rainbow ain't a crayon box
The sun it don't know it's hot
We don't know how nothing works
Like it or notSo U B U and I'll be me
Just don't hide a thing
We'll be fine
Even if it's all wrong, it's alrightAnd don't remember
What you're supposed to do
U B U and in unforgiving light
Even if it's all wrong, it's alrightSo U B U and I'll be me
Just don't hide a thing
We'll be fine
Even if it's all wrong, it's alrightAnd don't remember
What you're supposed to do

U B U and in unforgiving light
Even if it's all wrong, it's alrightU B USo U B U and I'll be me
Just don't hide a thing
Just dont hide a thing
Even if it's all wrong, it's alrightAnd don't remember
What you're supposed to do
U B U and in unforgiving light
Even if it's all wrong, it's alright
