

Lover Come Back To Me

Dinah Shore With The Red Norvo Quintet

D'you ever see yourself in my eyes?
Did you ever think that maybe I'd be lost without you?
D'you ever think that I was alright
    You knew it all along
D'ya ever try to sing to my songs?
Did you ever take a walk is wasn't walking with you, yea?
    Did you love me just to be loved?
    I knew it all along, I didn't try.
    Sometimes I like to be alone.
    Sometimes I try to telephone...
    Lover, come back to me,
    Lover, come back to me,
In your arms is where I need to be
    I am alone
    I am alone
    A raging sea.
    I want to taste your bronze skin's delights.
Did you ever want to be the sun that browns me?

D'ya ever think that I might decide?
To ask you to stay, baby put up a fight.
    Sometimes I like to be alone.
    Sometimes I try to telephone...
    Lover, you
    Lover, come back to me,
    Lover, come back to me,
'Cause in your arms is where I need to be.
    I'm alone
    I am alone
    Raging sea, yea
    Lover you
    Lover, come back to me
    Lover, come back to me, yea
    Lover, come back to me , yea
In your arms is where I need to be
    I am alone
    I am alone
    in this raging sea, yea
