Nothin' Left

Agent Steel

Cold sweat in nightmares
The desolate one
Deceived by betrayers
Alone in a crystal ballAll hopes are shattered dreams
Through the lens of a neon screen
The hourglass is sifting
Terminal from the final incisionSend signals to space, burned bridges
Too late, the loner is rising
Beware, I've nothing left, nothing leftA silhouette of disfigured
Transparent hypocrisies
A cry through sullen walls
I laugh with despiseRunning through the corridor
I've opened the door
The hourglass is sifting
Trying to heal from the finalSend signals to space, burned bridges
Too late, the loner is rising
Beware, I've nothing left, nothing leftSend signals to space, burned bridges
Too late, the loner is rising
Beware, I've nothing left, nothing leftMy lips are cracked from the heat
In the desert of pain
The sandstorm cracks my feet
Getting over the stormThe crystal balls open highway
Has opened the door
In my climb I'm like a mirror
Your reflection shatters on youNothing left
