

The Puzzle

In Flames

And I tried to think
Tried to paint the picture
I lived it all
Wouldn't have to feel this way Looking for something to believe in
I think I've done my time
One by one the pieces fall tell me what it is to believe You can tell days by their faces
There are always signs
Answer to the puzzle
Grab a piece of the light Keep pretending
I can handle everything
You'll never undersnad me
And I don't care what you think
Or maybe I do?
