All I Need

Matchbox 20

Everywhere someone's getting over
Everybody cries
And sometimes you can still lose even if you really try
Talking about the dream like the dream is over
Talk like that won't get you nowhere
Everybody's trusting in the heart like the heart don't lieAnd that's all that I need, yeah
Someone else to cling to, yeah
Someone I can lean on until I don't need to
Just stay all through the night
And in the morning let me down
'Cause that's all that I need right nowEverywhere someone's getting over Everybody's life is someone
People still use other people with a crooked smile
And all around the world there's a sinking feeling
Out there right now someone's feeling
Down on themselves and don't know why every nightAnd that's all that I need, yeah
Someone else to cling to, yeah
Someone I can lean on until I don't need to
Just stay all through the night, yeah
And in the morning let me down
'Cause that's all that I need right nowAnd life ain't no beauty show
We don't know where tomorrow ends
And when we're sad
It's kind of a drag, oh yeahJust stay all through the night
And in the morning let me down
Yeah, 'cause that's all that I need, yeah
Well, that's all that I need, yeah, yeah
That's all that I need right now, right now
