[Sample]

The heart is the general, the eyes are the scouts the fists are the arrows, the body is the bow
All movements have to be....[RZA]

I'm the 7 in the center of the sun, I keep shinin
My inner light would turn my baby's tear drop to small diamonds
That be twinklin, while my love be sprinklin

We stay young while your old wicked faces be wrinkl ALLAH's the most gracious, he made the universe the most spacious Seen and heard in all places, but still appear faceless
Embraces all races, all caste and all cases

In every spec of life he's the substance of all traces[Break]The answer to all questions, the spark of all suggestions

Of righteousness, the pathway to the road of perfection
Who gives you all and never ask more of you
The faithful companion that fights every war with you
Before the mortal view of the prehistorical, historical He's the all and all, you searchin for the oracle
A mission impossible, purely philosophical

But you call him on your death bed when you layin in the hospital[Break]And as you play all day like the grasshopper who work and toil

Like armies of ants carrying stones of soil
Building a home for themselves and storing food
At night we praise ALLAH and adore the moon
In sync like the flow of the Nile, the growth of a child
Only fearin' GOD, we great a ghost with a smile
That which is spirit is spirit, which is flesh is flesh

Meaning life has no partnership with death[Break]Yo, I've been highly misunderstood by those who met us
They had ears of corn and heads of lettuce

They had ears of corn and heads of lettuce
Mentally dead, essentially lead by the false teachings
And eventually pledge their allegiance

To that which was against them and exempt them from the truth
Then juiced them and pimp them to givin them ties
So the church can rise, while their babies home hungry covered with flies

[illegible]

Trying to harness the wind
ALLAH's the father from without and within
On Christ return, who will announce him?
Every tree is numbered, but who can count them?

The name of all things on this world, who can pronounce them?
ALLAH is the father of all, why do you doubt him?[Sample]The heart is the general, the eyes are the scouts the fists are the arrow, the body is the bow
All movements have to be mental
The wrist must be strong and the fingers powerful
Fast, high kicks, a good firm stance
Avoid the enemy's strong points
