

That Old Feeling

Ella Fitzgerald & Joe Pass

          Last night I started out happy
          Last night my heart was so gay
          Last night I found myself dancing
            In my favorite cabaret
          You were completely forgotten
            Just an affair of the past
          Then suddenly something happened to me
And I found my heart beating, oh, so fast I saw you last night and got that old feeling
          When you came in sight I got that old feeling
          The moment that you danced by I felt a thrill
And when you caught my eye my heart stood still
          Once again I seemed to feel that old yearning
          And I knew the spark of love was still burning
There'll be no new romance for me, it's foolish to start
          For that old feeling, is still in my heart
          I saw you last night and got that old feeling
          When you came in sight I got that old feeling
          The moment that you danced by I felt a thrill
And when you caught my eye my heart stood still
          Once again I seemed to feel that old yearning
          And I knew the spark of love was still burning
There'll be no new romance for me, it's foolish to start
          For that old feeling, is still in my heart
