Restless Dreamer

Boy Meets Girl

There you are, thinkin' one love will get you through all time
Something goes, you know what, but you know know wherePassion takes a train and love takes the blame
So dream on restless dreamer, dream on restless dreamer
My restless dreamerIt's a surprise, when you hear your own self tellin' little lies
Wishing you could stop, still you do not
'Cause you're under another's spellPassion takes a train, and love takes the blame
So dream on restless dreamer, dream on restless dreamer
My restless dreamerSometimes it's better, and sometimes nothing's changed
Just the faces and the names
Who play the same games, and they make you feel ashamed
'Cause all you wanted was a perfect loverPassion takes a train, and love takes the blame
So dream on restless dreamer, dream on restless dreamer
My restless dreamer, dream on restless dreamer
