Now There Is Nothing

Hot Chip

Now there is nothing that I want
I spend my whole time in my thoughts
Hoping to find my brother's love
Why did it leave us for above
Doo doo doo doo doo, doo doo doo
Hoping to find
What's lost in my mind
Lost in my mind
Dreaming my way through this house of yours (Now there is nothing)
I picture you standing by the door
Hoping to find your father's smile (Hoping to find)
Gone from the world but not from mine
When you were young

You'd wake before night was done
Now surely you belong
My name was on your tongue
Ohh, ohh, ohh, my nothing
Thinking of all that we used to share
I saw herself just standing there
A memory refracting inside a glow
When you were young
You'd wake before night was done
Now surely you belong
My name was on your tongue
Now there is nothing that I want (Now there's nothing)
I spend my whole time in my thoughts
Hoping to find
