Alison Hell

Annihilator

Alice isn't it frightening?
Alice aren't you scared?
Alice isn't it wonderful
Living life afraid?Don't look around the corner
I might be lurking there
Under the bed at night
You're up till dawn againAlison Hell, your mind begins to fold
Alison Hell, aren't you growing cold?
Alison Hell, you are looking blue
Alison Hell, what else can you do?I begin my rule
Life hideous in your mind
Crying out you've lost your doll
It isn't worth a dimeAlison Hell, your mind begins to fold
Alison Hell, aren't you growing cold?
Alison Hell, what are you looking for?
Alison Hell, soon I close the doorSitting in the corner
You are naked and alone
No one listens to your fears
You've created meAlice isn't it frightening?
Alice aren't you scared?
I was killed at birth, I shoot this final scene
You're in the basement, you're trapped insanityAlison Hell, what were you looking for?
Alison Hell, as I close the door
Alison Hell, here you shall dwell
Alison Hell, Alice dwells in hellAlice, Alison
Alice in hell
Goodbye
