

Wishing On Your Love

Sammy Johnson

It's been just me for awhile.

I must admit that I get tired of waiting for a love that I don't think will come, oh no.
Sometimes when I'm alone. I call you up just to hear your voice waiting for me on the other line, line.
Oh, 'cause no one wants to be alone (no one wants to be alone. No one wants to be alone.

Baby, I, I'm wishing on your love (wishing on your love)

I can't control it, ooh, I can't disclose it

This feeling that I'm feeling for you.

I guess by now you know how I feel

Please let me know if this is real (it's so real, it's so real, it's so real)

(It's so real, it's so real, it's so real)

And I promise I (I) would never tell a lie (lie)

And I promise I will always give you time (it's so real, it's so real, it's so real)

(It's so real, it's so real, it's so real), Oh

Oh, 'cause no one wants to be alone (no one wants to be alone. No one wants to be alone.

Baby, I, I'm wishing on your love (wishing on your love)

I can't control it, ooh, I can't disclose it

This feeling that I'm feeling for you.

Woyoyoyo (woyoyoyo)

Woyoyoyo (woyoyoyo)

Woah, woah

Oh, 'cause no one wants to be alone (no one wants to be alone. No one wants to be alone.

Baby, I, I'm wishing on your love (wishing on your love)

I can't control it, ooh, I can't disclose it

This feeling that I'm feeling for you.
