

Caledonia

Wallis Bird

I don't know if you can see
The changes that have come over me
And these past few days I've been afraid
That I might drift away I've been telling old stories, singing songs
That make me think about where I come from
And that's the reason why I feel
So far away today Let me tell you that I love you
That I think about you all the time
Caledonia has been calling me
Now I'm going home And if I shall become a stranger
Oh it would make me more than sad
'Cause Caledonia has been everything I've ever had
Now I have moved on
And I've kept on moving
Proved the points that I needed proving
I've lost the friends that I needed losing
Found others all on the way Now I have kissed the fellas
And left them sighing
Stolen dreams oh, there's no denying
I've travelled hard
Sometimes with conscience flying
Somewhere with the wind Let me tell you that I love you
That I think about you all the time
Caledonia has been calling me
Now I'm going home And if I shall become a stranger
Oh it would make me more than sad
'Cause Caledonia has been everything I've ever had
Now I'm sitting here
Before the fire
An empty room
Oh, a forest choir
The flames on wood
Don't get any higher
They've withered now they're gone But I'm steady thinking
My way is clear
And I know what I'll do tomorrow
The hands have shaken
The kisses flowed and
And I will disappear Let me tell you that I love you

That I think about you all the time
Caledonia has been calling me
Now I'm going home And if I shall become a stranger
Oh, it would make me more than sad
'Cause Caledonia has been everything I've ever had
Yes Caledonia has been everything I've ever had
