

Whatever You Want

The Soviettes

So, you're gonna waste time?
Step back and take your place
Always standing on the sideline
There's always someone new like you to bring our level down
Well, this ain't your town
We'll still be her without you
Can't you see where we'd doubt you?
Had enough of excuses, we don't need this
Well, we've had enough this time
We're going head to head
We've had it with your kind
Done letting you fall by the wayside
Can't wait to take you on in time
