Starlight

Weezer

That's alright
That's Ok
I'll keep holding on today
'Cause I'm waiting for the starlight in your eyesNo more faith
No more hope
All that I can do is grope
For a shred of loving care from my girlThe pain you felt has burdened you
You can't feel loved
I'm glad that I have been with you
But thats not enoughIn your arms I would be
Overjoyed as any boy
Holding on to what he loves
Oh so muchFeel your touch every night
When I dreamed to be alright
There you are in front of me
With your smileThe pain you felt has burdened you
You can't feel loved
I'm glad that I have been with you
But thats not enough
Whoa, thats not enoughThe pain you felt has burdened you
You can't feel loved
I'm glad that I have been with you
But thats not enough
Whoa, thats not enoughIn your arms I would be
Overjoyed as any boy
Holding on to what he loves
Oh so muchHolding on to what he loves
Oh so muchHolding on to what he loves
Oh so much
