Away

Trapdoor Social

Traffic on your mind kills you like a disease
Fire in the sky it's raining heavily
There will come a time when you decide it's fight or flight and you've had enoughSomething in your eye tells me what you need
A lover by your side and some fresh air to breathe
Leave it all behind and run away with me
Leave it all behind and run away with meO-way-aHit the gas and drive it like you stole the thing
The melody's alive so let me hear you sing
Feel your heart ignite, elevate, satellite, and then float down againFree and feeling high on new found clarity
The sunny summer shines in solidarity
Leave it all behind and run away with me
Leave it all behind and run away with meO-way-aEmbrace the charge that's flowing through you
Running down from high above
Melt away the pain inside you
Burning rubber, fueled by love
Break away, no chance of stopping
Liberation in your wake
Feel the rhythm, heart is popping
What's finally mine is yours to take
