

Any Means Necessary

Hammerfall

I won't pull the trigger, just to see you die
No remedy to make me come alive
I'm ticking like a time bomb, no fuse, just guts and gore
Initiate the burning of the core I count down the zero, pull the trigger, no parole
No mercy, no mercy, no mercy on your soul Kill by any means necessary
Win by any means necessary
Live by any means necessary
Die by any means necessary I am not judgmental, a sinner nor a saint
'Cause either you're my best friend or you ain't
Come gather here around me, feel my breath under your skin
I'm deadly only when I'm getting caught I count down the zero, I'm a soldier without soul
No mercy, no mercy, no mercy on your soul Kill by any means necessary
Win by any means necessary
Live by any means necessary
Die by any means necessary I am born to kill, judge and condemn
I am born to win, slay and maim 'em
I am born to live, fight for glory
I am born to die Kill, win, live, die Kill by any means necessary
Win by any means necessary
Live by any means necessary
Die by any means necessary I am born to kill, judge and condemn
I am born to win, slay and maim 'em
I am born to live, fight for glory
I am born to die, memento mori I am born to kill, judge and condemn
I am born to win, slay and maim 'em
I am born to live, fight for glory
I am born to die, memento mori
