Turbulence

Len Xiang

{Verse}

Sometimes behind your pretty smile I see all your pain your frustrations and misery knowing you're feeling turbulence and your waves starts to get rocky. When you need someone to talk to you can come to me

{Chorus}

it's not your sex even not your beauty you're my friend it's not your sex even not your Beauty you're my friend

{Verse 2}

someday you'll find a husband and child of your own (yes you) and someday you'll finally find a place that you can call home but when your felling turbulence and your waves start to get rocky when you need someone to talk to (my god girl) you can talk to me

{Chorus}

cause it's not your sex even not your beauty you're my friend yes you are it's not your sex even not your beauty your my friend (could we break it down one time)

{Verse 3}

whatever you need you can call on me I'll be there I'll be there yeah a friend in need for whatever you do I'll come running to you

{Chorus}

it's not your sex even not your beauty you're my friend yes you are it's not your sex even not you're beauty you're my friend yes you are it's not your ax even not your beauty you're my friend (yes you are) it's not your sex
