

Inside Her

Evi Vine

Well you know what it's like, when you feel light-headed
And the sun is reflecting in her eyes
And the touch of her skin, feels like summer
And the warmth that you feel comes as no surprise

Taking her clothes, feel her tremble, just go with what you feel
As the world disappears
You're sinking inside her, inside her

Well you know that it's like when it all goes quiet,
And the sun is reflecting in her eyes
And the touch of her skin, feels like heaven
And if you asked, would she stay with you a while

Taking her clothes, feel her tremble; just go with what you feel
As the world disappears, you're sinking inside her
Inside her... (inside her)
