House Party (Remix)

Arizona Zervas

Your on the couch, blowing up my phone.
You don't want to come out, but you don't want to be alone.
It dont take or two.
To have a little swalay.
Your in the mood, sit tight where you walk babe.
Cuz I'll be at your door for 10 minuets.
Whatever you got on girl stay in it.
You ain't got to leave now just have a good time I could bring the good time home to you.

We'll have a house party, we don't need nobody.
Turn your tv off, light that boom box out.
We'll wake up all the neighbors, till the hole block cagers.
And the cops show up and try to shut us down.

[2x]
If you are going to be a homebody, we're gonna have a house party.

Ok yeah, man I really thought I had the best chick for real.
Cute face, skinny wast with the sex apill.
I'm trying to hit the party with a maybe flex alittle.
But all she really wants to do is Netflix and chill.
Told her "baby its the weekend, you do this too often, you drop dead hot girl I could just put you in a coffin, put on that black dress, girl I want to see you flossin, then we get the boosin, and get the boo and get to Boston.

We'll have a house party, we don't need nobody.
Turn your tv off, light that boom box out.
We'll wake up all the neighbors, till the hole block cagers.
And the cops show up and try to shut us down.

[2x]
If you are going to be a homebody, we're gonna have a house party.
