Sheriff Fatman

Carter The Unstoppable Sex Machine

Now, Sheriff Fatman started out
In business, a granny farmer
He was infamous for fifteen minutes
And he appeared on PanoramaBut then he somehow got himself on board
The Starship Enterprise Allowance Scheme
With a Prince of Wales award
For pushing Valium and amphetaminesMoving up onto second base
Behind Nicholas Van Wotsisface
Six foot six and a hundred tons
The undisputed king of the slumMore aliases than Klaus Barbie
The master butcher of Leigh-on-Sea
Just about to take the stage
The one and only, hold the front pageFatman's got something to sell
To the capitol's homeless
At the Crossroads Motel
For the no-fixed-abodelessWhere you can live life in style
You can sleep in a closet
And if you flash him a smile
He'll take your teeth as depositThere's bats in the belfry
The windows are jammed
The toilets ain't healthy
And he don't give a damnHe just chuckles and smiles
Laughs like a madman
Born again Rachman
Here comes Sheriff FatmanWith his Valium, amphetamines
His sick notes and his phony prescriptions
And just when you thought it was safe
To go back into kitchenDead legs and cracked heads
Bunk-beds and breakfastsMoving up onto second base
Behind Nicholas Van Wotsisface
Six foot six and a hundred tons
The undisputed king of slumsMore aliases than Klaus Barbie
The master butcher of Leigh-on-Sea
Just about to take the stage
The one and only, hold the front pageMoving up now to take the place
Of Nicholas Van Wotsisface
Six foot six and a hundred tons
The undisputed king of the slumsWith more aliases than Klaus Barbie
The master butcher of Leigh-on-Sea

In a hatchback from Notre Dame
The one and only Sheriff FatmanIn goes another left hook and now I'm losing my patience
Someone call up Roger Cook and the United Nations
He's buying up houses for the has beens and helping
From Lands End to South end to ChelseaThere's bats in the belfry
The windows are jammed
The toilets ain't healthy
He don't give a damnHe just chuckles and smiles
Laughs like a madman
Ladies and gentlemen, I give you Sheriff Fatman
Sheriff Fatman, Sheriff Fatman, Sheriff Fatman, brainchumps
