

Crying Shame

Muse

Too late
Yeah baby it's too late
And time has made the spell obey
And now it's time to desecrate But we had a dream
And it was meant to be
And we were kissing gods
Against all the odds Now it's a crying shame
And it's a crying shame
You don't know who to blame
We'll never be the same
And it's a crying shame Too much
And we demolished too much
And yeah we really fucked it up
And yeah baby you've lost your touch But we had a dream
And it was meant to be
And we were kissing gods
Against all the odds Now it's a crying shame
And it's a crying shame
You don't know who to blame
We'll never be the same
And it's a crying shame
And it's a crying shame
