

Hang Me

Tancred

I don't quite know you yet
But you're sleeping in my bed
If you can't see, I will not break
Inside your claws, a million snakes
Do I sink or swim?
I don't really know
Am I the witch you hunt?
Hang me, throw your stones
I never thought you could be
Something wretched, ugly
I never thought you could be
I can see it makes you mad
See you claw and spit, it's just too bad
See your mark, your branded wound
I feel so little, can't feel you
Do I sink or swim?
I don't really know
Am I the witch you hunt?
Hang me, throw your stones
I never thought you could be
Something wretched, ugly
I never thought you could be
I never thought you could be
Not ever, ever to me
I wouldn't bet my money
Light a match and burn me
