

Faith In God

Bad Religion

It's alright to have faith in God
But when you bend to their rules and their fuckin' lies
That's when I start to have pity on you You're living on a mound of dirt
But you can't explain your reason of existence
Blame it on God There's so much hatred in this world
And you can't decide who's pulling the strings
You figure it's God Your whole life foreshadows death
And you finally realize you don't want to die alone
So you'll always have God It's all right to have faith in God
But when you bend to their rules and their fuckin' lies
That's when I start to have pity on you It's all right to have faith in God
But when you bend to their rules and their fuckin' lies
That's when I start to have pity on you There are people in the world today
Who say they're Jewish, Christian and such
They're all ignorant fools They'll tell you, can't have your way
Unless you pay money and dedicate your life
Or you'll be damned in hell Don't be feeble like all of them
You have your own brain full of thoughts and choices
So use it don't let them use you It's all right to have faith in God
But when you bend to their rules and their fuckin' lies
That's when I start to have pity on you
