Phone Call #27

Admiral Twin

Penelope, I guarantee
You've never seen a thing like this
Gravity has taken leave from my bedroom
You must come
You must come and see me
I'm bouncing high above my bed
And all the spiders outsidePenelope, you must believe
The sun will always shine on me
And I will wear this golden hat for no one else
You must come
You must come and see me
The sun will blind us
And we'll fall about together, my dearPenelope, you must agree
I've spilt like milk inside your head
And you must be very glad I've called again
You must come
You must come and see me
I'll chant your name until you're stepping off the bus here today
Until you're climbing up the steps to my room
I'll be waiting on the edge of the ledge
I'll shout your name until I see you again
