

Almost Just As Good

Patti Witten

I see your eyes sliding right past mine feel my heart start sinking Women always want to know what a man is thinking

Good intentions line the road said Iâ€™d go the distance Women navigate by landmarks the path of least resistance

chorus:

Say yes, say yes, say you like my dress Say when, say something donâ€™t make me guess
If you lie a little bit by acting just as if nothing happened itâ€™s so close to the truth itâ€™s almost just as good

Skin is coin, familiar tender timeâ€™s the bed we lie on Buttons, zippers, fingers, whispers how we keep the bargain

Tenderness and anger tangled up seamless, interlocking Background music you can talk right over
If you can call this talking

On the skyline crows coming in speak a secret language Show me angels, show me for mercy show me safer passage
