Trip Along

Tripping Daisy

Sitting on a curved back couch

My mind it rolls reminds me it was so easy

Staring at the Christmas lights

In a box that were once hanging on my treeProving once again that seasons change

So do we, it's nothing new

Similar to the love you find

While kissing your first kiss, the world was blindTrip along my mindless waveless thoughts they carry on Trip along my mindless waveless thoughts they carry onThe magic potion within my brain

Painted pictures of everything

The cat that barks, the dog that meows

The bird that flies all aroundTrip along my mindless waveless thoughts they carry on Trip along my mindless waveless thoughts they carry onSitting on a curved back couch My mind it rolls reminds me it was so easy
