More Than You Deserve

Anouk

What about those songs you sang my love
Were they meant for her?
And all those words you never said before
What about those kisses in my sleep
Were they meant for her?
Tomorrow will be fine
Yeah, just a little while
Oh no, this ain't no way to live
'Cause I will be
Watching every step, scared I won't find you again
'Cause if I leave you by yourself then you can hide away
I'll be watching every step, scared I won't find you again
'Cause if I leave you by yourself, yeah, yeah
What about that bracelet in your car
Was it meant for her?
I am more than you deserve
Tomorrow will be fine
Oh no, this ain't no way to live
'Cause I will be
Watching every step, scared I won't find you again
'Cause if I leave you by yourself then you can hide away
I'll be watching every step, scared I won't find you again
'Cause if I leave you by yourself, yeah
'Cause if I leave you by yourself, yeah
Oh oh, why couldn't you just lie, suicide?
Oh oh, why couldn't you just lie?
Watching every step, scared I won't find you again
'Cause if I leave you by yourself then you can hide away
I'll be watching every step, scared I won't find you again
'Cause if I leave you by yourself
Don't you waste my time, suicide, suicide
Don't you waste my time, suicide, yeah
I am more than you deserve
I am more than you deserve
I am more than you deserve
