

A Kiss in the Night

Bad Boys Blue

A kiss in the nightCan't find a second chance for love
Because a broken heart is never strong enough
To find a new horizon where the dreams come true
But even though my heart is longing for youA kiss in the night, lost in the dark
When lovers hide, angels are crying
Heaven's closed, no tears allowed
When lovers try to say goodbye, goodbye
A kiss in the nightI feel you're still a part of me
I will always love you in my fantasy
The streets are dark and lonely, we walk hand in hand
I understand our love has come to an endA kiss in the night, lost in the dark
When lovers hide, angels are crying
Heaven's closed, no tears allowed
When lovers try to say goodbye, goodbye
A kiss in the nightA kiss in the night, you're mineA kiss in the night, lost in the dark
When lovers hide, angels are crying
Heaven's closed, no tears allowed
When lovers try to say goodbye, goodbye
A kiss in the night, oh, I go, a kiss in the night, oh, I go
A kiss in the night, you're mine, a kiss in the night
