No Mercy For Swine

Cherry Poppin' Daddies

Well with bloodshot eyes
I'm finally broke
I feel like I just had a stroke
We made a stain
She said my name
I drank a thousand beers for that dame
Now we're the couple in the corner
Tying up our tongues to the percolating
Rhythm of the big bass drum
She said "No Jack, don't you go back"
"No Jack, don't you go back"
So we hit the floor
Slicked up to the nines
And I tell you there will be
No mercy for swine

I'm swingin' on the chandelier
Drowin' in a thousand beers
I've got it down to an art
Lonely sex with a desperate heart
Is the way to get over someone
Just to get under someone else?
And show them no mercy
No mercy for swine
