Life's Too Short

Kyle Spratt

Sometimes you need something to happend to you...
To put things in perspective
Now so many people...hate me
And i thought i hated so many people
Just a waste of time
Life's way to short

[Verse 1]
Yeah
You only live once, so this is my only chance
Life's too fucking short, rest in peace Nolan Chance
I almost died myself, october 12th, 4 A.M.,
God almost threw a deadly wrench into my pefect plan
And out of nowhere, here comes a helping hand
A good senerity starts hosing off the burning van 45 minutes trapped in that suburan air
When i saw my life flash before my eyes
Seems so worthless man
Just in time, Jaws got me out to circumstance
I'm just a fuck up god, i didn't even earn this chance
But since you gave it to me, I'ma try and chance my ways
Looking back all the time i wasted blazin' days away
Write a couple lines, I'll finish this verse after soon
Tomorrow is a promise not even this afternoon
Then morning, but what's so good about it though?
My life is like a movie but i ain't puttin' on no fucking show

[Chorus]
Life is a game, we're all trapped in it
Forced to play but never winning
You don't wanna waste one minute
Holdin grudges, hatred isn't worth it
Life's to short
I'm telling you that there's no point in dwelling
And I ain't holding on the past anymore
Live everyday like my last because life's to short

[Verse 2]
I get so many chances, but somehow i alwais fail

Seems like i only talk to god when i end up in jail
Soon as i get out, my train of thought derails
I'm smokin' weed again, I'm drinkin', and i hit females
I don't know why i do it, I feel so fuckin' stupid !
And i can't blame it on the way that i grew up influenced
I'm 21 now, it's time to grow the fuck up !
I shoulda listened to all the people I told to shut up!
But i was young and stubborn, little Kyle knew it all
Told the world to suck my dick and all i did was blue my balls
But who are you to call me a low life, look at you !
I ain't on no straight and arrow but your life is crooked too !
Shit there i go again, tryin' to point the blame away
From myself, I need help I know that
But yo, they say admittin' is the first step towards succes
And i'll keep walkin' there, with or without legs
Roll up in my wheelchair

[Chorus]
Life is a game, we're all trapped in it
Forced to play but never winning
You don't wanna waste one minute
Holdin grudges, hatred isn't worth it
Life's to short
I'm telling you that there's no point in dwelling
And I ain't holding on the past anymore
Live everyday like my last because life's to short

[Verse 3]
Lot of friends did me wrong, but I don't seek bastards !
'Cause they say karma is the hide and seek master
I'm sure it'll find you, just like it found me, thanksgiving
And this is real talk, it ain't rap and it ain't singing
Tryin' to teach you something, whether you learn or not
That don't mean nothing to me
I'm just tryin' to earn my spot in heaven
'Cause i know how I died in that crash that night !
I would have been in hell for all my afterlife !
Lookin' back at life, makes me upset !
I wish I could tell you I look back with no regrets
But yo that ain't the case, for example ?
Stole that phone, but I was 18 and they still won't leave me the fuck alone!
But it's whatever though, i'm gettin better bro !
Way over my ex's, what bitch you think i can't get a hoe ?
That's when I realize that I actually am alone

This is just a desicion, my emotions that I'll never show

[Chorus]
Life is a game, we're all trapped in it
Forced to play but never winning
You don't wanna waste one minute
Holdin grudges, hatred isn't worth it
Life's to short
I'm telling you that there's no point in dwelling
And I ain't holding on the past anymore
Live everyday like my last because life's to short

I wote these by ear
