

Wake Up Mr West

Kanye West

I knew I was gonna see ya, I knew I was gonna see you again!

I was gonna see you again

Where your god damn book bag at?

Always carryin' that lil' book bag

Nobody want to see that

God damn fourth grader

Sit yo' ass down

Now he want to play it again like he got something else to do

You ain't got nothin' else to do

You ain't doing nothing wit yo life Nothing with your life

What do you think this is?

You better look at me when I'm talkin' to you!

You think this is easy don't you?

You think this is promised

Oh ain't nothin promised with you

Look at my face, do I got a promise face?

Does it look like promise you anything?

Kanye!

Nigga! Is you snorin' in my class?

Wake up Mr. West! Mr. West
