Blame It On the Rain

Anika Moa

You want your way
Talk at me today, I don't care
I don't want to fight with you tonightI'm done
I need something to hear
I need something to see from you
Well, I am blackA motor gone to the dumps
You look so tired
Like a little kid in my hair
I won't be fooled, no, not from you
I don't careBlame it on the rain
Put your problems to the ground
We spend too much time
Running from each other
Oh, I need some understanding from you
I need some understanding from youWell, I can't sleep, my mind's on repeat
It's too tough, I'm wasting away
But not in my size, it's too tough
I won't look down, 'cause I feel
Too proud to look downBlame it on the rain
Put your problems to the ground
We spend too much time
Running from each otherOh, I need some understanding from you
I need some understanding from youBlame it on me
Give you something to do
Don't blame it on yourself
I wouldn't do that to you
But I need some understanding from you
I need some understanding from youOh, can't you see
What you're doing to me
It won't do, I won't be scared
I'll sleep when I'm dead
I'm too young, I feel too tired
To watch you cry, there's not timeBlame it on the rain
Put your problems to the ground
We spend too much time
Running from each otherOh, I need some understanding from you
I need some understanding from youBlame it on me
Give you something to do
Don't blame it on yourself

I wouldn't do that to youBut I need some understanding from you
I need some understanding from you
Blame it on me
Blame it on me
