

Sing Me Home

Tim McGraw

I fell by the wayside
I fell on my knees
Cryin', "Why was I so hard to please?" I stood at the crossroads
Took a long look at me
Sometimes you don't know where
You're from 'til you leave And I've been out there searching
For a place where I belong
And on my way, I heard my song
Let it sing me home Sun on my shoulders
And the wind at my back
Bound and determined
To get back on track To where the heart is Where it's been all along
Sometimes you don't know you've Got 'til it's gone, gone, gone, gone And I've been out there searching
For a place where I belong
And on my way, I heard my song
Let it sing me home Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah And I've been out there searching
For a place where I belong
And on my way I heard my song
Let it sing me home Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
