

The Lost Boy

Greg Holden

I left my home still as a child
I walked a thousand sorry miles
To wait for my father to gather up his tools
He said my boy you've got to run
Don't wait for me, don't wait for mum
We'll come get you when it's safe for us to move
So I waited many years
Held back the pain behind my tears
For my father to come find me like he said
And in that time I was alone
So many years without my home
I made brothers of a different kind instead
At the time I didn't know
Just how hard the wind could blow
Towards disaster, and the things that I would see
I never found my father
I never found my mother
Even would I know in my lifetime I will be
A hero to the masses
To those born without chances
There's a freedom that everyone deserves
I know there's greed and there's corruption
I've seen death and mass destruction
But I'm telling you and I hope that I am heard
And I will not be commanded
And I will not be controlled
And I will not let my future go on without the help of my soul (x4)
