

Lily Marlene

The Tiger Lillies

This one's a dodo
This one's a flop
This one's a moron
And I'm fit to dropCross-fire chatter
Caught in the slums
She's off to her Chelsea HotelHer friend was out
Another one died
She felt depressed
She almost criedAnd then she remembered
She'd left her hat
Back in the Chelsea HotelNo more Lily Marlene
Boys in the back room
Falling in love againShe was an angel
Caught in crossfire
Out of Germany
Before it expiredHistory is written
The blue angel's gone
And this could be her saddest songAnd history is written
The blue angel's gone
This could be her saddest songSong, song, song
