

Simmer

Silversun Pickups

Where it starts
And where it ends
Is here in my bedroom Chatter from vents
Is the only thing seeping through I see spiders defend
The same space Im living in
I should be calmer to mend
The words are mattering What am I waiting for?
Somebody to break in
What am I aiming towards?
A fight that never ends
What am I searching for?
A light to shine again A silent curtain
Still the worlds still grinning
I need a strong arm my friend
To keep me from simmering What am I waiting for?
Somebody to break in
What am I aiming towards?
A fight that never ends
What am I searching for?
A light to shine again Nothings coming
Nothings coming
Nothings coming If I get up
Ill let this end
Where do I begin? What am I waiting for?
Somebody to break in
What am I aiming towards?
A fight that never ends
What am I searching for?
A light to shine again Nothings coming
Nothings coming
Nothings coming
Nothings coming Thats where it starts
Thats where it ends
Thats where it starts
Thats where it ends
Thats where it starts
And where it ends
