Mirror

Lalah Hathaway

Bitter hearts don't hold a smile
Troubled minds will wear you down
Use your past to get ahead
Hold your tears and think instead
You have to find a way to make it
These clouds are letting up for awhileSometimes you gotta make the mirror your best friend
Maybe then, you'll find some peace within
Stop hiding yourself, stop hiding yourself
Love yourself
When no one else canNow you know the remedy
Tell yourself you will achieve
Just go on and brush your shoulders off
This bridge is one that you must cross
You have to find a way to make it
These clouds are letting up for awhileSometimes you gotta make the mirror your best friend
Maybe then, you'll find some peace within
Stop hiding yourself, stop hiding yourself
Love yourself
When no one else canIf you love yourself, you don't need nobody else
(Don't need nobody else)
No one can love you like you
If you look inside, (look inside)
You'll find where your strength resides
No one can love you like youSometimes you gotta make the mirror your best friend
And maybe then, you'll find some peace within
Stop hiding yourself, stop hiding yourself
Love yourself
When no one else canStop hiding yourself, stop hiding yourself
Love yourself
When no one else canStop hiding yourself, stop hiding yourself
Love yourself
When no one else can
