Verwandlung

Thomas Azier

To low to love you,
somebody to hold,
somebody to care for,
And I will go back to the old ones I used to care for,I'm so confused,
Laying here alone, locked up in my room,
(Change)
Oh the night is cruel,
(You)
And there were no goodbyes,
The only thing I know is that these walls have eyes,
(Change)
I see birds flying by
(You)To low to love you,
Somebody to hold,
Somebody to care for,
And I will go back to the only i used to care for,Oh your fists so mean, Let that coming on one day,
(Change)
and you hit me first,
bit through my lips until they black and hearve,
And I feel so strange,
When the only one I know in this place gonna change,
Running through my veins,
(You){muttering on telephone}To low to love you,
Somebody to hold,
Somebody to care for,
And I will go back to the old ones I used to care for.
