Imagining

Brian Crain

Verse 1:
Someone like you is rare
You're not afraid to care
Always say how you feel
It's part of your appeal
We've shared some special times
I'm glad that you are mine
You showed me a better way
It's shame you couldn't stayRise:
I wish the miles between us could only disappear
Until that day I'll just hold back the tearsChorus:
Imagining you're right here with me
Thinking of all that could be
Imagining your gentle touch
I'm missing you ooh so much
My imagination's running right out of control
I'm missing you more than you could knowVerse 2:
You show such tenderness
I feel that I've been blessed
We've got a chemistry
That feels so right to me
I know you always said
It had to be like that
But sometimes I feel like I am going out of my mindRiseChorusBridge:
I know for now that we're gonna have to wait
The rest we are gonna have leave to fate
It won't be long before you're here with me
'cause it's our destiny babyChorus 3 x
