God In This Moment

Gavin Mikhail

stan glass windos all around me waching as they fall down to there knees wisperind words i am not understandering i know that i should be nealing praying asking for forgiveness thinking of all the things i've don wrong hoping that god is out there some where listing now and all along and i'm told theres a god in this moment waching over me

i don't know theres a god in this moment but i know i'll try to believe ten years ten life times older now waching waiting expecting that day knowing that i can hope to i magen the ways my life will change now i'm holding my doughter she's sleeping staring at her face just like mine knowing from that one nothing matters as much as this in my life and i know theres a god moment

waching over me
and i-i know my god in this moment and i know i'll all ways believe untill you took away frome me the only thing that mattered in my life can't u see why i am in gray with you i'm hating you for all you put me thrue and i don't know why and side this sun linches defing in time i gave up everything for you all way along god don't let her be gon i'm lost with out you but now your gon and i'm fadeing and i i've hurd of all theas new ways tho i'm praying you've gon to a better place now i just can't say but i hope there's a god in this moment waching over me

i don't know there's a god in this moment

but i'll try to believe god i hope your there in this moment waching over me now can you show your there in this moment somethig to make me believe but god hope your there in this moment waching over me now can you show your there in this moment something to make me believe

Lyrics submitted by kirashida.

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/