Smoke Damage

Hi I'm Case

Looking at the present's fucking sad
Yes, I tried the blue pill
Five times what I should've had
No, I'm not okay but nothing's broke
Maybe God'll let me die when my dreams go up in smoke

They're out there for me, I know it
Too far away to see but I'm always moving toward it
It's getting hard to breath I don't know why
The air looks clear to me but the atmosphere is sordid
I'm not about to complain
That's too much time and energy
Too long a walk to try to turn back

And I'm not the same
It's plain enough to see
But some of us are living in the past
Oh, but looking at the present's fucking sad
Yes, I tried the blue pill
Five times what I should've had

Jumped out of fire into frostbite
Arms too weak to climb
But still too strong to let go
Maybe God'll let me die when my dreams go up in smoke
When my dreams go up in smoke

Happy New Year from the ashes
I gave my lungs a good telling
My organs forty lashes
My calendar is stuck
I'd make New Year's resolutions
But I didn't really plan on waking up
Oh, I'm getting sick and tired of fucking up
Yes, I tried the blue pill
Clearly didn't try enough

Jumped out of fire into frostbite
Been drowning inside out since before I woke

Maybe God'll let me die when my dreams go up in smoke

Feed the fire all you want
You won't take me
Knock me down all you want
Watch it save me
Somehow I'm moving on and it pains me
They all may want me gone
Let it chase me

Feed the fire all you want
You won't take me
Knock me down all you want
Watch it save me
Somehow I'm moving on and it pains me
They all may want me gone
Let it chase me

I'm not about to complain
That's too much time and energy
Too long a walk to try to turn back
And today was the same
I nearly dodged a bullet
But the universe is going on attack

Oh, but looking at the present's fucking sad
Yes, I tried the blue pill
Five times what I should've had

Jumped out of fire into frostbite
Arms too weak to climb
But still too strong to let go
Maybe God'll let me die when my dreams go up in smoke

(Feed the fire all you want
You won't take me
Knock me down all you want
Watch it save me
Somehow I'm moving on and it pains me
They all may want me gone
Let it chase me)

(Feed the fire all you want
You won't take me
Knock me down all you want
Watch it save me

Somehow I'm moving on and it pains me)

Maybe God'll let me die when my dreams go up in smoke
