

Missing You (Tonight)

The Polaroid People

A single strand of your hair
Lying still in my bed
What am I supposed to do
I close my eyes
Envision you
Where you are and Ill see you soon
But theres something missing now
And I have to work it out
Coz my patience's running out
Coz Ive waited long enoughAnd Im missing you tonight
Yes Im missing you tonight
Coz Im missing you tonight
And you know the hardest part to find
Im missing you tonightYoure not the only one I talk to all alone
This puzzle doesnt end at your finger tips
Ill not be hanging round until youve hit the ground
Your head is in the cloudsBut theres something missing now
And I have to work it out
Coz my patience running out
Coz Ive waited long enoughAnd Im missing you tonight
Yes Im missing you tonight
Coz Im missing you tonight
And you know the hardest part to findAnd dont you forget that were not over
And dont you forget that were not over
And dont you forget that were not over
As long as youre mineBut theres something missing now
And I have to work it out
Coz my patience running out
Coz Ive waited long enoughAnd Im missing you tonight
Yes Im missing you tonight
Coz Im missing you tonight
And you know the hardest part to find
Im missing you tonight
