Terrible Thing

David Yazbek

I did something horrible
I did a terrible thing
I did something horrible
I did a terrible thing

I gave up (you say)
I gave up (you say)
I gave up (you say)
I just threw it all away

I did something horrible
I did a terrible thing

Up in the Bronx
Where the white goose honks
And the trees spread out like soldiers

There's a miscreant's pay That gets socked away in an empty can of Folger's

I did something horrible--

Down in the ground
where the worms dance 'round
'cause their dinner
came unwrapped

There's a piece of a guy who refused to lie -- A knee and thigh
but he got himself trapped
That's me down there
With the blood in my hair
And my face
down in the clover
I was alive
at nine forty-five

But now my time is over
